Restaurants and Co (Corona)

The time of corona has struck us all with imens power. Never before have I experienced anything alike. The impacts of corona can be seen in our everyday life. Beginng with the face masks, continuing with keeping distance and last but not least lockdown(s). This time makes us all face great challenges. Many business have to fight for their economical survival, which is at risk as no customers can by localy. Therefor many businesses have come up with very individual solutions in order to stay allive.

My series focuses on individual solutions restaurants have come up with due to corona. Begining with take aways and ending at closing permanently.
